Author Ethical Declaration

By submitting this manuscript, the undersigned author(s) will declare and confirm that:

- ☐ The manuscript will be original, unpublished, and will not be under review elsewhere.
- ☐ The manuscript will comply with plagiarism limits, and the similarity index will not exceed 15%, excluding references, citations, and commonly used methodological descriptions.
- ☐ All data, figures, tables, and results will be accurate, authentic, and ethically obtained, with no fabrication, falsification, or inappropriate manipulation.
- ☐ All listed authors will have made significant intellectual contributions, and no ghost, guest, or honorary authorship will be included.
- ☐ Any use of AI-assisted tools (e.g., language editing, grammar correction) will be ethical, transparent, and limited, and will not replace scientific reasoning, data interpretation, or intellectual authorship.
- ☐ All funding sources, institutional support, and potential conflicts of interest will be fully disclosed.
- ☐ The manuscript will comply with COPE ethical standards and the publication quality requirements of Scopus and Web of Science (WoS).

The author(s) acknowledge that violation of these declarations may result in rejection, withdrawal, or post-publication corrective actions, in accordance with publication ethics policies.
