Reviewer Ethical Commitment

By accepting a review assignment, the undersigned reviewer will declare and agree that:

- ☐ The manuscript will be reviewed objectively, fairly, and confidentially, without bias related to authorship, institution, nationality, gender, or ideology.
- ☐ Any conflict of interest (personal, professional, financial, or institutional) will be disclosed immediately, and the review will be declined if impartiality cannot be ensured.
- ☐ The content of the manuscript will not be shared, disclosed, or used for personal or professional advantage.
- ☐ The review will be constructive, evidence-based, and submitted within the agreed timeline.
- ☐ No coercive citation practices or unnecessary self-citation requests will be made.
- ☐ AI tools will not be used to generate reviews in a manner that compromises confidentiality, originality, or ethical judgment.
- ☐ The review process will comply with COPE Ethical Guidelines for Peer Reviewers and the quality expectations of Scopus and Web of Science (WoS).

Any breach of reviewer ethics may result in removal from the reviewer panel, as determined by the Editorial Committee.
